

Dear candidate,

Thank you for enrolling in the American Red Cross Blended First Aid/CPR/AED course at the PWCS Aquatics Center. This letter will provide you with pertinent information regarding policies and procedures of the course. The dates and times for this course are as follows:

Thursday, April 30th, 2020 5:00pm – 6:45pm @ PWCS Aquatics Center

For this course, you should bring the following to each session:

- Proof of PWCS employment
- Proof of online session completion
- Pen or pencil, highlighter, and paper

If a candidate has not completed the online portion of the course, that candidate cannot continue with the in-person portion. There are no exceptions to this rule. Please read the refund policy below:

Registration for First Aid/CPR/AED classes can be refunded in full or transferred to another class more than two weeks prior to the in-person session for the class. Students who withdraw or transfer to another class after this date or do not complete the online portion before the in-person portion will receive a refund minus a $20 service fee.

Please plan to complete all lessons of the online training at least two days prior to in-person skills session which is scheduled for April 30th. The online portion takes approximately TWO AND A HALF HOURS to complete; please plan accordingly.

Please follow the registration process outlined below to gain access to the online portion:
